

Simple presentation rubric

This group presentation counts for XX% of the overall mark. The criteria presented in rubric below are used for evaluation.

Sub-category	Weight in percentage	0-5	6-7	8-10
Content	40%	The content is of poor quality and does not connect with the prior knowledge of the audience	The content is of acceptable quality, and connects somewhat with the prior knowledge of the audience	The content is high quality and connects very well with the prior knowledge of the audience
(Oral) presentation skills	30%	Poor presentation, which is hard to follow due to poor use of voice, very limited interaction with the audience and poor timing.	The presentation can be followed by the audience, but limited attempts are made to engage the audience through non-verbal communication, interaction, or use of voice.	Lively and engaging presentation, in which the presenter(s) make optimal use of voice, non-verbal communication and interaction with the audience to deliver their presentation.
Visuals, structure and other elements	30%	Slides contain too much text and graphs, making it all but impossible to follow. The visuals are poorly structured and do not add anything to the presentation.	The slides are mostly readable, but contain occasional errors and problems with the structure. Little or no attempt is made it add value through the visuals.	The slides provide a good balance between well-written and balanced text and good visuals. The combination of both helps to illuminate the story and additional visuals help to generate new insights.
